

Harold A. Mecham

Our grandpa, Harold A. Mecham, passed away May 10, 1993 in a Salt Lake City hospital after a short illness, with his loved ones by his side. He was 84 years old and his life was rich and fulfilling.

He was born April 25, 1909 in Provo, Utah, to Rochael and Wells Mecham. His formative years were spent on the family farm. After a brief courtship, he married Ruth Palmer, June 28, 1940 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. They were loving and constant companions until his death.

He worked as a welder and layout man for American Oil Company. He was a natural teacher and passed on his skills to many students at the Salt Lake Community College. Through his teaching, he touched many lives in a caring and encouraging manner.

Harold was a kind and gentle man. He deeply loved his daughter, Diane and her husband, Marvin, as well as his three precious granddaughters, Rebecca and husband, Brian, Willow and husband, Tom, and Anne-Mare. His two grand-sons, Shawn and Paul, also held a special place in his heart. In addition to those mentioned above, he is survived by Elton Mecham, a brother, and Marion Rambold, a sister. He was "Uncle Harold" to many nieces and nephews. He enjoyed the children of his neighborhood and was known affectionately by all as "Grandpa".

Funeral services will be held Thursday, May 13th, 2 p.m. in the Larkin Sunset Gardens Mortuary Chapel, 10600 South 1700 East. Sandy, where friends may call Wed. 7-8 p.m. and Thursday, one hour prior to the service. Interment Larkin Sunset Gardens.

The family wishes to extend a heartfelt thank you to the many neighbors and friends who have been a constant source of strength and help during the past several years.

N 5/12

Harold D. Mecham

WALLSBURG—Our beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend, Harold D. Mecham 82, died January 10, 1997 at his home in Wallsburg.

Born October 5, 1914 in Wallsburg, Utah to Ottis Lewis and Jesse May Lloyd Mecham. Married Ella Givens October 6, 1954 in Elko, Nevada. Marriage later solemnized in the Salt Lake LDS Temple.

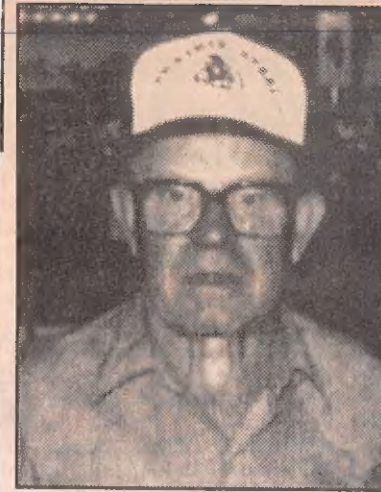

He was a veteran of World War II and served in the South Pacific for 30 months. Employee of Geneva Steel for 26 years. He enjoyed farming.

Survived by wife, of Wallsburg; sons, David and Alna Mecham, Kuhio, Hawaii; and Nile H. and Judy Mecham, Roosevelt; seven grandchildren; brothers and sisters: Edward Mecham, Farmington; Mrs. Paul (Myrth) Young, Fruitland; Keith Mecham, Wallsburg; Artamesia Mecham, Duchesne. Preceded in death by brothers, Reed and Lewis Mecham; sisters, Jennie Lee Young and Emma Scheaffer.

Funeral services Wednesday 11 a.m. in the Wallsburg Ward. Friends may call at Olpin Mortuary Tuesday 6-8 p.m. and at the church Wednesday one hour prior to services. Burial Wallsburg Cemetery.

T 1/12

N 1/12

Harold D. Mecham

Our beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, Harold D. Mecham 82, died Jan. 10, 1997, at his home in Wallsburg.

Born Oct. 5, 1914, in Wallsburg, to Ottis Lewis and Jesse May Lloyd Mecham. Married Ella

Givens Oct. 6, 1954, in Elko, NV. Marriage later solemnized in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Veteran of WWII and served in the South Pacific for 30 months, employee of Geneva Steel for 26 years. He enjoyed farming.

Survived by wife, of Wallsburg; Sons, David and Alna Mecham, Kuhio, Hawaii, and Nile H. and Judy Mecham, Heber City; 7 grandchildren. Brothers and Sisters: Edward Mecham, Farmington; Mrs. Paul (Myrth) Young, Fruitland; Keith Mecham, Wallsburg; Artamesia Mecham, Duchesne. Preceded in death by brothers, Reed and Lewis Mecham and sisters, Jennie Lee Young and Emma Scheaffer.

Funeral services Wednesday 11 a.m. in the Wallsburg Ward. Friends may call at the church Wednesday one hour prior to services. Burial will be in the Wallsburg Cemetery.

Harold D. Mecham

WALLSBURG — Our beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend, Harold D. Mecham 82, died January 10, 1997, at his home in Wallsburg.

Born October 5, 1914, in Wallsburg, Utah to Ottis Lewis and Jesse May Lloyd Mecham. Married Ella Givens October 6, 1954 in Elko, Nevada. Marriage later solemnized in the Salt Lake LDS Temple.

He was a veteran of WW II and served in the South Pacific for 30 months. Employee of Geneva Steel for 26 years. He enjoyed farming.

Survived by wife of Wallsburg; Sons, David & Alna Mecham, Kuhio, Hawaii and Nile H. & Judy Mecham, Heber City. 7 Grandchildren. Brothers & Sisters: Edward Mecham, Farmington; Mrs. Paul (Myrth) Young, Fruitland; Keith Mecham, Wallsburg; Artamesia Mecham, Duchesne. Preceded in death by brothers, Reed & Lewis Mecham & sisters, Jennie Lee Young & Emma Scheaffer.

Funeral services Wednesday 11 A.M. in the Wallsburg Ward. Friends may call at Olpin Mortuary Tuesday 6 - 8 P.M. and at the church Wednesday one hour prior to services. Burial Wallsburg Cemetery.

Beverly Peck Meckham

"When she had passed, it seemed like the ceasing of exquisite music," Henry Woodsworth Longfellow

Heavenly Father has called home one of his choice daughters.

Beverly Lynn Peck Meckham, age 42, passed away of her home in West Valley City, November 5, 1991, after battling cancer with the utmost grace and dignity.

One of the world's greatest neighbors, no one ever came to her door who didn't go away feeling uplifted.

Beverly was born January 16, 1949 in Salt Lake City, a daughter of Jack and Thelma Peck. She married a devoted and caring man, Harold M. Meckham October 12, 1973, in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. He is the great love of her life and served her with unflinching devotion. She attended Olympus High School and went on to Brigham Young University and the University of Utah majoring in Music. She was an accomplished pianist and organist and studied under Dr. Robert Cundick and Dr. Alexander Schliener. She is a past organist and choir director for St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral in Salt Lake and gave unselfishly of her time and talents to those who sought her musical ability.

She was an active member of the LDS Church in the Hunter 7th (2nd) Ward and has served in many positions, always magnifying every call given her. She will be sorely missed by her many neighbors and friends.

She is survived by her loving husband, Harold, and two sons, Adam H. and Jacob J., West Valley City; parents, Jack and Thelma Peck, Holladay; four brothers, Jack Jr. (Marlene) Peck, Sandy, Brent (Collette) Peck, Holladay; Matthew (Sam) Peck, Murray; and Mark (Marianne) Peck, Holladay. She was preceded in death by her older brother, Charles David Peck.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday, November 9, at Hunter 7th Ward, 3970 South 5200 West, West Valley City, 4 p.m. Friends may call Friday evening, 6:30-8:30 p.m., at Larkin Mortuary, 260 East South Temple, Salt Lake City, and at the Ward, 1 1/2 hours prior to services. Interment, Valley View Memorial Park, 4400 West 4100 South, West Valley City.

T 11/7

N3 11/7

Jack L. Mecham

Jack Leroy Mecham, loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, returned to his Heavenly Father on May 4, 1989, leaving a void in our lives that can never be filled.

Born September 23, 1904 in Woods Cross, Utah to Dr. Norton Roy and Sophia Bergetta Olsen Mecham.

He married Donna Elizabeth Curtis May 16, 1945, in Bologna, Italy. He attended school in both California and Utah, graduating from East High and the University of Utah with a B.S. degree in Business.

Jack was an All-American guy in every way. He loved people and athletics, but most of all, he loved his family and lived his life for them. He was known for his modesty, sense of humor, honesty, and his impeccable sportsmanship. Sports were an important part of his life and he excelled in all of them. While at East High, he participated in track & field, basketball, football, and baseball and was president of the ski team. He was also an All-City Cycling Champion.

He continued his studies and his athletics at Utah State and then at the University of Utah where he participated in baseball, Nordic ski jumping, and was president of the U of U Ski Team. His fraternity brothers elected him president of Phi Kappa Theta, and he was quarterback of the basketball team. Jack never gave up his keen interest in sports, and remained an avid follower and supporter of U athletics. He served in the South Pacific 24th Infantry Division, and the North African and European Theaters as an officer in the 5th Army. Jack became a very successful businessman. He worked for McGraw-Hill before starting his own company, J. L. Mecham, Inc. He traveled throughout the Western States and received many awards and much recognition for his achievements. A member of the LDS Church, he was active in all Church activities. He was an Eagle Scout, a Scoutmaster, and coached Little League football and baseball, and various church athletics. He had a deep and sincere passion for his family and shared it with others. He was survived by his wife, two daughters and two sons, Cheryl Ann, Rebecca Lynn, Jack Leroy Jr., and David Roy, two granddaughters, Lisa Rae and Emily Erin, all of Salt Lake City; a brother, J. Ralph Mecham, Salt Lake City; two sisters, Mrs. A. Park (Julia) Smoot, Salt Lake City, and Mrs. Max (Thea) Hiltz, Esmeralda, Utah. Preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Helen Madsen.

His love and concern for his family will always be with us. "Mech", who wore a Big "36" on his jersey, was the kindest, gentlest, most loving man we've ever known.

"We love you, Grampa!"

Funeral services will be held Monday, May 8th, 12 noon, at 4032 Solley 2300 East, where friends may call one hour prior. Interment, Woodchick Lawn Memorial Park, under the direction of Larkin Mortuary.

Zina Mecham

Zina Ellen Duncan Mecham, 94, of Orem, died Tuesday, April 11, 1989, at her home.

She was born Jan. 18, 1895, in Woodland, Utah, a daughter of Peter and Amanda Moon Duncan. She married James Duke Mecham on March 27, 1912, in Hayden, Utah. The marriage was later solemnized in the Manti LDS Temple. He died April 1, 1976.

Zina Mecham

She was an active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She served as Relief Society president, Primary and Mutual teacher and Sunday School teacher. She and her husband served a mission in 1958 in Florence, Ala., the Southern States Mission. She enjoyed traveling and fishing.

Survivors include three sons and two daughters, Orval Mecham, Orem; Merlin J. Mecham, Bountiful; Leo D. Mecham, Salt Lake City; Mrs. Burt (Ila Rhae) Bacon, Caldwell, Idaho; Glenna Campbell, Twenty-nine Palms, Calif.; 24 grandchildren, 74 great-grandchildren, 26 great-great-grandchildren; three brothers, Joseph Duncan, McNeil Duncan, Oluf Pat Duncan, all of Neola, Utah. She was preceded in death by a son, Nolan D. Mecham.

Funeral will be Saturday, 1 p.m., in the Orem 109th Ward Chapel, 200 North 1050 East, Orem. Friends may call Friday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Sundberg-Olpin Mortuary, 495 S. State, Orem, and Saturday one hour prior to services at the ward chapel.

Burial will be in the Orem City Cemetery.

Zina E. Mecham

Zina Ellen Duncan Mecham, 94, of Orem, died Tuesday, April 11, 1989 at her home.

She was born January 18, 1895 in Woodland, Utah, a daughter of Peter and Amanda Moon Duncan. She married James Duke Mecham on March 27, 1912 in Hayden, Utah. The marriage was later solemnized in the Manti LDS Temple. He died April 1, 1976.

Survivors include three sons and two daughters, Orval Mecham, Orem; Merlin J. Mecham, Bountiful; Leo D. Mecham, Salt Lake City; Mrs. Burt (Ila Rhae) Bacon, Caldwell, Idaho; Glenna Campbell, Twenty-nine Palms, California; 24 grandchildren; 74 great-grandchildren; 26 great-great-grandchildren; three brothers, Joseph Duncan, McNeil Duncan, Oluf "Pat" Duncan, all of Neola, Utah. She was preceded in death by a son, Nolan D. Mecham, of Price.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, April 15, 1 p.m., in the Orem 109th Ward Chapel, 200 North 1050 East, Orem. Friends may call Friday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Sundberg-Olpin Mortuary, 495 S. State, Orem, and Saturday one hour prior to services at the ward chapel. Burial will be in the Orem City Cemetery.

N3 4/12

N4 4/13

James Randall (Randy) Mecham

James Randall (Randy) Mecham, age 23, died May 14, 1993 in U of U Hospital of injuries from a bull riding accident.

Born April 13, 1970 in American Fork the son of James Russell and Sandra Kay Brown Mecham. He enjoyed sports of all kinds, hunting, fishing, and racing automobiles. He had great affection for animals and children.

He is survived by 1 daughter, Cortney Jean of Orem; Father James and Mother Mrs. Kay (Sandra) Abel all of American Fork, 3 step-sisters, and several aunts and uncles. Preceded in death by grandparents Ila Mecham and Ranch Brown; also uncle Dan Mecham.

Funeral Services will be Wednesday 11:00 a.m. in the Anderson & Sons Mortuary 49 East 100 North American Fork, where friends may call Tuesday 6 to 8 p.m. and 1 hour prior to services. Burial in American Fork Cemetery.